

Rock Out Like The Star You Are

If you're one of the 50 million aspiring rockers playing "Rock Band®" or "Guitar Hero®", you're probably still missing a key element of the experience—realistic sound. It's time to upgrade your music experience from the limited fidelity typically found in today's flat panel TV's to the true concert excitement your games are capable of with Polk Audio's HitMaster™ powered gaming stage monitor. The HitMaster provides full-range stage monitor music performance and excitement to make it real. Who knows you will probably improve your score at the same time. Hit it!
