

UltraFit 1000 In-Ear Sports Headphone

Designed from the ground-up to meet the rigorous needs of the athlete and perfect for any active listener, UltraFit Sports Headphones will be the last headphone you'll ever need to buy.

The UltraFit 1000 is similar in design to the UltraFit 500 but with the added feature of a 3-button in-line remote control and a microphone, both of which allow you to use your iPod[®] or iPhone[®]. Like the UltraFit 500, the 1000 is designed to sit in the flange of your ear canal and provide a moderate noise suppression. The UltraFit 1000 also comes with a short (14") hassle-free and tangle-free cable for MP3 sleeve and collar connections.

Features

- High Performance Digital Sound—Excellent detail and bass to maximize performance.
- 3 Button Remote Control & Microphone—Use your iPhone and iPod on the fly with in-line controls.
- SecureFit™ Support—Exercise or play knowing your headphones will stay comfortably in place.
- Ultra Flexible Tangled-Free Planar Audio Cables—Avoid cable tangle and unwanted microphonics with oxygen-free cables in two custom lengths.
- StrainGuard™—Kevlar core and computer designed transitional connections eliminate cable failure.
- Moisture Shield—Resists moisture and keeps performing through strenuous activity.
- Short (14") Cable—For iPod nano[®], iPod shuffle[®] and other MP3 sleeve and collar connections.
- 3.5 mm Connector—Designed to fit through the opening on all cases.
- Engineered For Durability & Comfort—Made with the latest materials and performance technology to take punishment while staying comfortable.
