

UltraFit 2000 On-Ear Sports Headphone

Designed from the ground-up to meet the rigorous needs of the athlete and perfect for any active listener, UltraFit Sports Headphones will be the last headphone you'll ever need to buy.

The UltraFit 2000 is an on-ear design for anyone uncomfortable with ear buds or in-ear headphones. The headphones' SecureFit™ support ensures a snug yet comfortable fit. The headphones also afford light noise suppression, so you're more aware of your surroundings. On-ear 3-button control and in-line microphone enable you to use your iPod® or iPhone®.

Features

- High Performance Digital Sound—Exceptional detail, full fidelity and deep bass to maximize performance.
- On-Ear 3 Button Remote Control & Microphone—Use your iPhone and iPod on the fly with built-in controls.
- SecureFit™ Support—Exercise or play knowing your headphones will stay comfortably in place.
- Ultra Flexible Tangle-Free Planar Audio Cables—Avoid cable tangle and unwanted microphonics with oxygen-free cables in two custom lengths.
- StrainGuard™—Kevlar core and computer designed transitional connections eliminate cable failure.
- Moisture Shield—Resists moisture and keeps performing through strenuous activity.
- Airframe Design—Combining aerodynamics, materials technology and manufacture to achieve the ideal balance of performance, comfort and reliability.
- Reflective Wrap-Around Headband—Highly reflective insert offers additional safety through improved visibility.
- 3.5 mm Connector—Designed to fit through the opening on all cases.
- Engineered For Durability & Comfort—Made with the latest materials and performance technology to take punishment while staying comfortable.
